thority personally appeared

J. H. McQueen who after being by me sworn according to law declares that when he reached home from the army in the fall of 1836 Isiah Dykes member of Capt Logans Company was at home and was afflicted with Remaand his wife Isiah were the only men of the name of Dykes in said Company and also Jeremiah McQueen who after being sworn declares that while she did not see Isiah Dykes ^{till} in the fall of the year 1836. She lived in ten or twelve miles of him and in the latter part of that year she often heard of his affliction and frequently that he had to be fed by another person. and she further states that she saw him the
